

Renewal, Love and Transformation

The sweet smells of spring awaken in us hope, renewal and love.

Transformation into being resurrects a new life filled with truth and intelligence; beauty and sanity abounds.

Can we create beauty and sanity out of chaos? Yes!
If unending faith causes turbulence and fear to end;
then we are renewed and smiling.

Even when the heart is breaking right decisions can be made as we connect with God's infinite harmony.

© by Karen Harris