MARBLE'S EASTER OFFERING 2022

The world continues to hurt. The Marble Easter Offering goes to help those who hurt physically and mentally – inside the city, at our country's borders, and elsewhere in the world.

"Your continued support and friendship mean the world to us, particularly as the pandemic and its associated health, economic and employed-related crises have made mental health an urgent priority for our city," writes Michael Connolly, President of the Harlem Family Institute, which was funded in the last three Marble Easter Offerings. "The Institute is committed to using the tools of psychoanalysis and mental health care as instruments of social justice and structural change... to help heal the deep psychic wounds that result from trauma, racism, abuse, oppression and violence."

"The Institute is evidence of God's light shining hope and comfort on those struggling so mightily in the face of tremendous challenge in this hurting world," says John Hupalo, a Marble deacon who serves on the Benevolence Committee. "Marble is full of gratitude to know that our gifts and love support such essential work."

Jesus declared: "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you." (Luke 6:38)

We have celebrated Easter, but we are still collecting for the Marble Easter Offering. Please give at MarbleChurch.org/give/easter-offering or by check, payable to Marble Collegiate Church, memo: Easter Offering.
